THE MEDICINES COMPANY'S DEPOSITION DESIGNATIONS

In accordance with Form Local Rule 16.1.1, The Medicines Company provides the following designations of deposition testimony. The Medicines Company reserves the right to:

(a) use at trial any of its deposition designations (including affirmative designations and counter designations) as affirmative designations or counter-designations; (b) submit by paper, read, or show videotape of deposition excerpts; (c) use any deposition designations (including affirmative designations or counter designations) identified by Mylan; (d) supplement its deposition designation testimony (including affirmative designations and counter designations) with that of persons who are presently listed as will-call trial witnesses by either party in the event that such witnesses are not called at trial; (e) designate additional portions of deposition transcripts for the purpose of authentication of documents, if required; (f) revise or supplement its designations in light of the Court's rulings and in light of Mylan's claims and defenses that remain to be tried; and (g) use any and all deposition testimony, whether or not designated, for cross-examination, impeachment, or rebuttal purposes. Additionally, to the extent any portions of these designations include objections or colloquy of counsel to certain questions, The Medicines Company reserves the right to remove those objections or colloquy before the deposition excerpts are played or read into evidence.

A key to the objection codes referenced is attached at the end of this Exhibit.
